Their Tenth Anniversary Celebrated Under Diffienttles. The tenth annual anniversary of the Knights of t. Headed by the National Brass Band, the commandery made a short parade and then marched to the hall preparatory to the opening the commandery made a short parade and then marched to the hall preparatory to the opening exercises. Here it was found that the building was shrouded in darkness and that the gas could not be lit. There were also symptoms of trouble brewing, as a portion of the hall was occupied as an armory by a military organization who were disposed to resent the renting of the hall to the colored men. By a strategic movement the knights obtained possession of the entance, and hold it against the military, and in the measuring a delegation arrived with Mr. Kirk, the owner of the hall. After a rather excited conference, in which it was intinsated that the military had turned off the gas at the meter and plugged up the spigots of the waterpipes, the knights were put in possession of that portion of the premises rented by them, and lamps and candlessecured to illuminate the same. The members of the commandery behaved in a very praisewority manner, and to their cooliness and framess was due the fact that no disturbance occurred, as the members of the unilitary organization were somewhat excited. The annivezzaty ceremonies commenced at 9 o'clock with the grand march after which the floor was cleared for danging, which was kept up until a late hour. The following committees directed the celebration: Executive committees. Annius Herbort, commander; John Krischer, first deputy; L. B. Brown, second depaty; C. H. police court Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, Frank H. Fall surrendered himself to the authorlites, prepared to await whatever action the government might take in the matter. The papers—the warrant based on Juror Brown's affidavit, the particulars of which have already been published—were then served on him. Mr. H. H. Wolls appeared for the government, and Messrs. A. G. Riddle and R. G. Davis for the defendant. Mr. Wells asked that the bond be fixed at $6,000. Mr. Fall's coupsel claimed that $2,500 was amply sufficient, and offered Mr. Frank J. Tibbets as surfety, who qualified in that amount. In case the court required $5,000, Mr. Martin Barringer was if attendance to qualify on the bond. After waiting some time for Judge Snell's appearance later in the afternoon, he accepted a bond in $2,500, and FALL WAS RELEASED. clock, Frank H. Fall surrendered himself to the FALL WAS RELEASED.

H. C. Clazett, counsel for Artuur Payne, asked Judge Snoll to reduce his client's ball, claiming that $2,000 was excessive. Judge Snell peremptorrily refused to do so. Mr. H. H. Wells stated that Payne was a very poor man, and it would be very difficult for him to give the required bail. Judge Snell replied that if Payne had not been poor he would have fixed a higher ball. Several attempts were made to secure a bondsman, but proved unavailing. At the request of Mr. Wells Judge Snell has appointed next Tucsday at 12 o'clock for the stated on good authority that Shaw is still in the
